

UNLV

MULTICULTURAL PROGRAM FOR STEM
AND HEALTH SCIENCES

2021 NATIONAL SUMMER TRANSPORTATION INSTITUTE

2021 NSTI is a free two week virtual camp for high school students. All who are interested in STEM disciplines, especially in transportation industry are encouraged to apply.

JULY 12-24, 2021

APPLY
NOW!

HTTP://BIT.LY/2021UNLVNSTI

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration

UNLV
HOWARD R. HUGHES
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Participants will explore modes of transportation, urban infrastructure planning, pedestrian safety and various career opportunities. We also offer college preparation and life skills activities, college seminars, UNLV lab tours, virtual field trips, peer mentoring sessions with UNLV students, and exciting group projects.

REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must:

- Be U.S. Citizens or Permanent Residents
- Be rising 10th-12th grade Nevada students
- Have cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Have an interest in STEM related careers
- Have completed or be qualified to take Algebra in 2021-22 school year

TO APPLY

Submit the following:

- Personal statement
- 2 Letters of Recommendation
- A copy of school transcript & standardized test scores
- List of awards, accomplishments, volunteer engagement

FOR INQUIRIES

Contact: Dr. Joanna Jezierska (aka Dr. J):

joanna.jezierska@unlv.edu or mp@unlv.edu

Multicultural Program:

Website: <https://www.unlv.edu/multicultural>

Facebook: @unlvmulticulturalprogram